A SEASON OF LEGENDS & RISING STARS

At Gold Coast Jazz, we are constantly raising the bar as to whom we present in the concert series. This year we have an exceptional line up of artists that will perform classics from the Great American Songbook, great jazz standards, contemporary and modern jazz. You can be assured that the jazz artists we present are exceptional and renowned both here and abroad.

We invite you to become a subscriber to A Season of Legends and Rising Stars. Full Season and Jazz Trio subscriptions (pick 3 concerts) are still available. If you become a member of the GCJS, you will receive a significant discount on your subscription and single tickets while supporting the efforts of our non-profit organization. Single tickets for each concert are reasonably priced at $70 per person (plus applicable fees) and are available through Ticketmaster, online at www.goldcoastjazz.org, or www.browardcenter.org, at the Broward Center AutoNation Box Office, or by phone at 954-462-0222. If you are a student (under 25) or a teacher, you get a special rate of $15 per show with a valid ID. Concerts begin at 7:45pm and take place in the Amatur Theater of the Broward Center for the Performing Arts in Fort Lauderdale.

NOV 11, 2026 - (WED) 7:45PM

Janis Siegel & the South Florida Jazz Orchestra

Opening our season on November 11, will be Janis Siegel, the popular jazz vocalist from The Manhattan Transfer. She will be performing with the South Florida Jazz Orchestra, directed by our very own Dr. Chuck Bergeron. Janis has won multiple Grammy® awards and is best known as a member of the vocal group The Manhattan Transfer. In addition to being a member of the illustrious TMT, Siegel has enjoyed an illustrious solo career as a vocalist. Our subscribers will remember the SFJO, a modern Big Band comprised of some of the best jazz musicians, studio musicians, and jazz educators in the southeast who have performed and toured with many of the greatest artists in both Jazz and Popular music.

DEC 2, 2026 - (WED) 7:45PM

The Hot Sardines

On December 2 we will feature the GCJS debut performance of The Hot Sardines. Straight out of NYC, The Hot Sardines are an American jazz band, formed by Elizabeth Bougerol and Evan Palazzo. The band emerged from the underground parties of Brooklyn to touring worldwide and recording a string of albums that have racked up more than 60 million streams. The New York Times says the Hot Sardines are "potent and assured." The Times, London says they have a "simply phenomenal" brand of reinvigorated classic jazz. They will perform selections from Holiday Stomp, their latest recording. These fun arrangements of holiday tunes infuse yuletide classics with the band's unique and swinging sound.

JAN 13, 2027 - (WED) 7:45

APR 14, 2027 - (WED) 7:45

Stacey Kent

As requested, we're bringing back the remarkable guitarist and vocalist, John Pizzarelli, to perform with his trio on January 13. In this performance, Pizzarelli will feature music from the trio's latest album Dear Mr. Bennett, which is dedicated to the music of Tony Bennett. Pizzarelli, who has been hailed by the Boston Globe for "reinvigorating the Great American Songbook and re-popularizing jazz," has established himself as one of the prime contemporary interpreters of the Great American Songbook. His swinging style is comparable to that of Nat King Cole, with a standard jazz trio. Pizzarelli has over 30 albums to his credit, provides a weekly livestream on Facebook, and is co-host, alongside wife Jessica Molaskey, of Radio Deluxe with John Pizzarelli. "Pizzarelli's group pops" says Will Layman of Pop Matters.

For another GCJS debut performance on February 3, we are bringing the legendary jazz pianist, Bob James, to our stage for an amazing evening of jazz. Discovered by Quincy Jones, Bob James has enjoyed a long and varied career which continues to evolve at every turn. Notably, he created the popular theme song to the 1970's television sitcom Taxi. Over the years he's been nominated and won multiple Grammy® Awards. James co-founded the jazz supergroup Fourplay which has toured world-wide. The most sampled jazz artist of all time, his music has captivated audiences throughout the world. Bob partnered with Dave Koz on their recent album, Just Us, which was nominated for a 2026 Grammy® for the Best Contemporary Instrumental Album.

March 10 marks another GCJS debut performance as we present Ulysses Owens, Jr. and Generation Y. A three-time Grammy® Award winning drummer, Ulysses Owens, Jr. is known for being a drummer who "takes a back seat to no one," and is "a musician who balances excitement gracefully and shines with innovation," says The New York Times. As a performer, producer and educator, Ulysses goes the limit in the jazz world and beyond, claiming eight successful albums of his own. Owens has also gained special attention for his performances on Grammy® Award-winning albums by Kurt Elling and The Christian McBride Big Band. He's bringing his "Generation Y" Band which includes some of today's foremost young jazz lions who will perform music from Owen's latest album Around the World with U.

On April 14, you'll hear vocalist Stacey Kent, another favorite of the Gold Coast Jazz audiences. Stacey and her musicians will perform selections from her latest album A Time for Love. The Wall Street Journal says that she has "charm to burn, a smile that could give you hope... and sings like nobody's business." Billboard calls Kent "Thoroughly captivating... (Kent's) voice has a startling clarity, turning phrase after phrase with subtlety and an impeccable feel for the music." Her albums have sold over 2 million copies and have been No. 1 on the jazz charts. This will be another great night of jazz vocals!

MAY 12, 2027 - (WED) 7:45PM

Emmet Cohen Trio

Closing our concert series on May 12 will be the exciting and phenomenal jazz pianist, Emmet Cohen with his trio. "Few artists hold the energy, emotional appeal and downright charm that Emmet Cohen contains," claims A.D. Amorosi of JazzTimes Magazine. Cohen, an accomplished pianist, composer and entrepreneur with his Live from Emmet's Place vid-streaming broadcasts, has over 246K subscribers and followers on Facebook and YouTube. Cohen has collaborated with hundreds of musicians, including Christian McBride, Joshua Redman, Samara Joy, and many of the most important and genre-defining voices in jazz today. He has accompanied numerous jazz luminaries and plays with the command of a seasoned veteran. His trio is one of the hottest young trios in jazz today and melds all styles of jazz, stride, swing, bebop, free, and contemporary with an emphasis on the Great American Songbook.

Please note that all artists, times and dates are subject to change.

Message from Tim Ingham, President

"When I was 35, it was a very good year." So the song proclaims, and I've learned better than to argue with the Chairman of the Board.

My 35th year was a very good one for me, too, and momentous. My wife Julie and I had returned to Florida after a long time away. We'd bought our first house and were expecting our first child. So many major life experiences awaited, and I felt I was ready. With all that I knew was in store for me, I couldn't fully appreciate the consequences of something else that happened that year: I joined an organization called the Gold Coast Jazz Society.

Through all the transformative joys and challenges of learning to be a homeowner, a father, and (God help me) a Florida man, Gold Coast Jazz was providing lifechanging experiences of a different kind, so many sublime performances by inspiring musicians—local and from all over the world—and so many great times with a vibrant community of artists, educators, professionals, volunteers, supporters, and enthusiasts that I've been thrilled to be a part of ever since. So many very good years.

Now, Gold Coast Jazz Society itself is turning 35. We're celebrating all year long with a blockbuster "Season of Legends & Rising Stars." We've got exciting Gold Coast Jazz debuts from high profile artists like The Hot Sardines, Ulysses Owens, Jr., and the legendary Bob James. And some GJCS favorites are coming back: John Pizzarelli, Stacy Kent, Emmet Cohen, and Manhattan Transfer's Janis Siegel with the South Florida Jazz Orchestra. At 35, we remain more committed than ever to our scholarship and education programs and to outreach events that bring the music to the people. It may be the "autumn of the year" for me, but Gold Coast Jazz is just hitting its prime!

We're so happy that all of you are with us. But even after 35 years, not everyone has joined the party. So spread the word to your friends and neighbors, and bring them along for a toast to treasured musical memories, past and yet to come. Together let's make this 35th season, and many more hereafter, "from the brim to the dregs," a very good year.

President

Happy 18th for First Friday Jazz Jam

We had a stellar year last year for the First Friday Jazz Jam program. It's hard to believe that in January we'll be going into our 18th year of this program.

Last year we had high school students from the tri-county area who attended American Heritage, Alexander Dryfoos, Christina McAullfe, Cypress Bay, Dillard Center for the Arts, Everglades, Fusion Academy, Hollywood Hills, New World School of the Arts, North Broward Preparatory, Park Vista, South Broward, West Broward high schools. Middle school students from Apollo, Driftwood, Tequesta Trace middle schools, Sheye's Elementary participated as well as college students from Broward College and Miami Dade College.

We started the program back in 2009 after learning that there was really no family-friendly place where students could come and jam with the professional musicians. That was back in 2009 when our original quartet was led by Eric Allison on sax, Mark Marineau on piano, Lenny Steinberg on drums and Jim Kessler on bass. Since 2011 Nicole Yarling has led the program and continues as the Jazz Jams facilitator. Our backline and "special guest" musicians may be different each month, but Nicole has consistently served as the teaching leader, encouraging jazz students to join in and play with the other musicians and hone their chops.

Audiences have enjoyed watching the progress of the students as they grow into more seasoned players. Many of the students go on to study jazz in college and eventually become professional musicians. "This has been extremely gratifying to watch over the years," said Pam Dearden, Executive Director.

We graciously thank Nicole Yarling and the other participating musicians for their time and talent. Thank you to ArtServe, Broward County, and WLRN FM for their continued support of this program. 🎵

ON TOUR WITH JAZZSLAM

(JAZZ SUPPORTS LANGUAGE ARTS & MATH)

Thanks to the support of our generous sponsors, we are excited about another banner year of in-school and SEAS On Tour presentations of JazzSLAM. We thank our dedicated quartet, which includes leader Nicole Payne on piano, Bill Coleman on vocals and guitar, Orlando Machado on drums, and our newest member, Portia Dunkley, on bass.

JazzSLAM will be presented through the SEAS On Tour program for a week in November in addition to numerous other free in-school presentations throughout the school year. Teacher's give rave reviews to the program such as Mr. Krajewski, 4th grade teacher from Bayview Elementary, "We are studying poetry and fractions. This was perfect!" Ms. Kennedy, 3rd grade teacher at Bennett Elementary said, "I really appreciate the connection of jazz music in subjects across the board. It's a fascinating way to keep students engaged and entertained."

JazzSLAM presentations are provided at no cost to the participating schools and students. We have reached thousands of students since GCJS adopted the program in 2009 from Mari Mennel-Bell, the creator of the JazzSLAM program.

To learn more about how to support JazzSLAM, contact the GCJS office at 954.524.0805 or online at www.goldcoastjazz.org.

This year's JazzSLAM presentations are supported by the following:

Gold Coast Jazz Scholarships

Each year the Gold Coast Jazz Society proudly awards scholarships to local jazz students endeavoring to continue their jazz education. Thanks to the monetary support of the estate of Jeanette M. Russell and donations from the Elizabeth and Daniel O'Connor Family Foundation and Teri Pattullo (in memory of Brian Pattullo), the scholarship program provides financial scholarships to students studying jazz, to help offset summer jazz camp tuition and college or university tuition expenses. Students are selected based upon financial need and artistic ability and all participate in an audition process.

This year's College Scholarship awardees include: Trevor Ball, Sax; Jolie Demesmin, Voice; Alessandro DiCostanzo, Drums; Wyatt Gaviria, Sax; Austin Helbling, Piano; Julia Montealegre, Trombone; Enzo Pulley, Drums; James Ratchford, Sax; and Endia Sparks-Hardy, Piano. Students are attending Florida International University; Florida State University; Huston-Tillotson University, and John Hopkins University (Peabody Conservatory).

Jazz Camp Scholarships were awarded to Khalil Alfred, Sax; Jaiden Alvarez, Sax; Noah Aranda, Drums; Anthony Bell, Sax; Patrick Brinson, Bass; Cristian Cabrera, Trombone; Angel Cerra, Drums; Antonio Ciotti, Sax; Quincey Dubois, Sax; Lucas Franco-Caicedo, Drums; Gregory Hammond, Trumpet; Elijah Jubert, Sax; Madison Krushall, Sax; Brody Leao, Trombone; Cyril Mitchell, Sax; Neil O'Connor, Trombone, Victoria Palma, Bass; Kalel Perez-Blunden, Trombone; Erick Poliard, Sax; Dillion Powell, Piano; Julian Pratt, Bass; Nathaniel Ratchford, Trombone; Benjamin Riggio, Sax; Pierre Sendre, Trumpet; Ariel Torres, Trombone; Axel Torres, Trumpet; Andre Ulloa, Drums; and Kent Waldman, Sax.

Students are from Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts, Apollo Middle School, Calvary Christian Academy, Dillard Center for the Arts, Driftwood Middle School, Everglades High School, Hollywood Hills High School, New World School of the Arts, North Broward Preparatory, Pioneer Middle School, Sheyes Elementary and Tru North Classical Academy. They attended summer camps at Artis-Naples, Brevard Music Camp, Brubeck Jazz Camp, Florida A & M University, Florida State University, Jazz Arts Collective/Fordham University, Music Adventure Camp, New England Conservatory of Music, Skidmore Jazz Institute, the University of Miami, University of North Texas and the University of Rochester.

A Note from Nat & Antonio!

From: Nat Ratchford

Thank you again to the Gold Coast Jazz Society for providing support for me to attend the Skidmore Jazz Institute.

The 2 weeks that I spent at Skidmore Jazz Institute were absolutely worth it, and it gave me a huge push and inspiration. Seeing students my age that were as passionate about jazz music as I am reinforced my everlasting love for this music. It was an incredible honor to study under the great Steve Davis. I learned a great deal about playing in a small group with players who I hadn't played with at all before the camp. Experiencing the great Kenny Garrett perform a concert and teach a masterclass for us was one of the most transformative musical experiences in my life so far, as maestro Garrett has been one of my main musical influences in jazz music.

I continue to be grateful to the Gold Coast Jazz Society for the opportunity to experience such a beneficial program.

Sincerely,
Nat Ratchford

Dear Gold Coast Jazz,

Thank you for giving me a scholarship. I attended the New England Conservatory Jazz Lab. I learned a lot about how I can improve my sound and tone. Also, about improv technics used by professionals and much more. I greatly appreciated you investing in me as a musician.
